VALENTINE FREIGHT EXPRESS COMPANY,

Via New and Erie R. R.

N. Y. Office, 193 Broadway.

SPECIAL FREIGHT NOTICE!

THIS company having lately made more full and perfect arrangements than heretofore had, beg to call attention to their facilities for the

of all classes of merchandise, between the eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and places west, north-west and south-west. We offer the following advantages:—From and after this date our fast Express Train will be run from Jersey City every day (Sundays excepted) direct for Dunkirk, making close connection with our trains on Lake Shore Railroad for all places westward.

Full and complete arrangements have been perfected by which can be made than has heretofore been made or attempted by any freight line. Our business is under the control and management of experienced transportation men. We have capable and responsible agents at al principal points of transfer and delivery, and our freight is carried in cars under our own control—all of which ensure safety and despatch; added to which

Quicker Time

Our Rates will at all Times be as Low as by the Regular Railroad Lines.

Great care will be taken to guard against over charges, losses or damages, but should any occur, claim therefor will be promptly examined into and adjusted

SHIPPING DIRECTIONS.—Mark packages "Valentine Express." Procure Bills of Lading on the day of Shipment. For rates of freight, contracts, bills of lading and directions, apply to IRA JUSTIN, Jr., Agent, First door east of Hyatt House.

Janesville, Nov. 30, 1859. nov30dtf

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeab'e STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent Invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and, liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

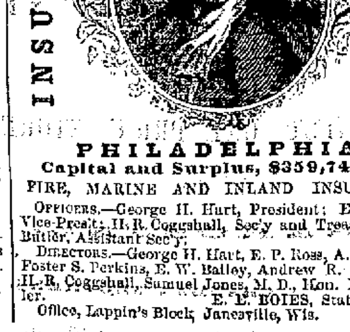

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Important Land Suit in Michigan.

The Detroit Free Press says that Congress has provided for a commision to appraise the value of a tract of land sixteen miles square, lying on the Michigan side of the Saut Ste. Marie, and including the Saut canal, the village of Ste. Marie, the Saut Railroad, and various improvements in the way of farming, building, &c. This tract was granted by Louis XIV. to the Chevalier de Repentigny, whose heirs, after long continued efforts, have succeeded in inducing Congress to recognize their rights by a special act. The value of the tract is something fabulous, and the public works and private improvements have enhanced it immensely. When satisfactorily ascertained, the aggregate value will be awarded to the grantees, in Government lands elsewhere located. The matter, however, is not finally settled, as their claim is to be brought before the United States Circuit Court at Detroit for a confirmation of the title deeds, and other necessary legal formula. Monsieur Favargey, of Guadaloupe, W. I., is one of the grantees, and Senator Benjamin, of Louisiana, is counsel in the case.

MATRIMONIAL AND FINANCIAL.—A southern planter named P. once lived on the eastern shore of Maryland. One of the strongest and most marked traits of his character was an inordinate love of money. In the course of time P. was of age, and thought it about time to get married. He went to a neighboring village, and in the course of time was introduced to the daughter of Judge B.

"Dang fine gal!" said the embryo speculator to his friends, who were gaining him an entrance among the elite.

"Very!"

"How much might Judge B. be worth?"

"Why, abont ten thousand dollars!" was the reply.

"And how many children has Judge B?" continued the inquirer.

"Only three."

"Three in ten goes three times and a third over," mentally cyphered P.

Here was a chance—a glorious chance—and he improved it too. He made love to the beautiful and unsophisticated daughter of the judge, with all his possessions.—Strange to say—for he was as uncouth a looking cub as ever went unkicked—his suit prospered, and they were married. The honeymoon passed off as all other honeymoons do, and they were happy. The bride was lively and chatty, and often made allusion to her brothers and sisters. Startled at a number of names he thought should not be in the catalogue of relations, one evening, at tea, he said:

"My dear, I thought there were only three of you."

"So there are by my ma, but pa's first wife had eight more."

"Eleven into ten, no times and nary over," said the astonished P., who jumped up and kicked over the chair, and groaned in perfect agony: "I'm sold! I'm sold—and—and—and a sight cheaper than an old bell-wether sheep at that!"

THE WHITE WOMAN IN AFRICA.—A white woman, who accompanied her husband, a missionary, up the Cavalla river last May, excited the greatest curiosity and admiration among the sable dwellers of that benighted African region. All wanted to touch her, and great surprise was expressed upon feeling her hair. The King of Nyinemo tribe called her "very fine," and complimented her husband greatly for his taste in selecting her. And when she told him be might see other white women who would surpass her, he said that would either never be, or else a very long time.—Owing to her presence, the attendance on preaching was extraordinary large. During her visit at the mission station, hundreds went to see her, who said they could feel satisfied to die now that they had seen such a wonderful being as a white woman.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH FREEING A SLAVE.—At the close of the services at Plymouth church, Sunday evening, Mr. Beecher presented to the audience a mulatto girl, twenty-two years old, named Louisa, who had been purchased from her master in Maryland by Mr. Seibold, of Washington, for $1,200, in order to obtain her liberty. Mr. Beecher stated that $400 had been raised, leaving $800 more required for her freedom. The sum of $511 was collected, and Mr. W. H. Sage gave his name for the balance. In the collection was a gold ring, which Mr. Beecher placed on the finger of the girl, saying it was her freedom ring, and as he did so she fell prostrate on the platform before him. Mr. John B. Gough gave the girl fifty dollars to pay her expenses to Washington.—New York Post.

Let the farmer consider now the question: What shall we do these long winter evenings, to pass away the time that otherwise will hang heavily on our hands? The prudent farmer will answer this question by providing his family with suitable books and papers, that they may store their minds with knowledge, and learn more of human life in its progress.

There are now about 15,000 pigs of lead awaiting shipment in Galena, and an average of 1,200 were arriving daily.

The cradle in which Henry Clay was rocked, was recently exhibited at a fair in Virginia.

"Professor" Downing, the fellow who swindled one hundred New York girls out of $5 each under pretence of teaching them the art of photographic transferring, has been arrested.

WHAT THE SOUTH FEAR.—The Philadelphia Press very pertinently remarks that it is the fear that Lincoln will make a conservative President, rather than that he will not, that disturbs the fire-eaters of the south. Nothing would so effectually take away their occupation as the national and conservative tone of the administration, and knowing the man, they bolt in advance.

THE RETURN OF REASON.—We see it stated that the great Wigfall has reconsidered his determination to resign his seat in the United States senate. He will be at his place in Washington in December, ready to pocket his salary from the much abused general government.

When are soldiers good flannel? When they don't shrink.

GREAT VICTORIA BRIDGE OPEN.

This immense iron structure, nearly two miles in length, (the longest in the world,) erected across the river St. Lawrence, at Montreal, at a cost of six and a half millions of dollars, to connect the eastern and western divisions of the Grand Trunk Railway, of Canada,

is now open for public traffic. This road, of nearly 1,100 miles in length, is operated under one management from Detroit, Mich., to Portland, Me., and there is only ONE CHANGE OF CARS from Chicago or the Mississippi river to Portland or Boston. Quickest and most convenient route for travel between the west and Canada and New England. Passengers and freight booked through to all parts of Canada, and the New England states, also

TO AND FROM CHICAGO AND LIVERPOOL, and the continent of Europe, at considerably reduced rates, by the only regular weekly line of United States and European Mail Steamers, sailing from Portland every Saturday during winter and Quebec during summer, and from Liverpool every Wednesday, calling at Queenstown (Cork) every Thursday throughout the year. MR. L. MOSES—Dear Sir:—Having had in constant use for nearly a year, a set of Lent's Patent Bed Springs purchased of you, I am prepared to recommend the same as the best article of the kind which has ever come under my notice. In fact it is the first and only bed spring I have been willing to use. Besides being exceedingly comfortable, it is at once simple, cleanly and durable. Its use, moreover, is conducive to health, as it sustains the mattrass in such a way as to expose its under surface at all times to a free circulation of air.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business, and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

SEWING MACHINES!

SINGER'S Shuttle Machine, with all the latest improvements, may be obtained at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Addy, corner of Franklin and Wall sts, near the Hyatt House. This machine is warranted to be superior to any other in market, for all kinds of family sewing. Mrs. A., from her thorough acquaintance with this and the other kinds in use, feels entire confidence in recommending this to her friends and the public, as possessing superior advantages, as she will be ready to demonstrate to the satisfaction of those who may favor her with a call. Persons desirous of purchasing, are invited to call and examine for themselves. As a further inducement, Mrs. A. offers gratuitous instruction in the use of the machine to those who purchase of her; all necessary instruction to enable a person of ordinary capacity to operate the machine successfully can be given in the short space of one hour. Price, from $45, $55 up to $100, according to size. Hemmers, Gauges and Needles kept with the machine. MRS. WM. ADDY.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Important Land Suit in Michigan.

The Detroit Free Press says that Congress has provided for a commision to appraise the value of a tract of land sixteen miles square, lying on the Michigan side of the Saut Ste. Marie, and including the Saut canal, the village of Ste. Marie, the Saut Railroad, and various improvements in the way of farming, building, &c. This tract was granted by Louis XIV. to the 'Chevalier de Repentigny, whose heirs, after long continued efforts, have succeeded in inducing Congress to recognize their rights by a special act. The value of the tract is something fabulous, and the public works and private improvements have enhanced it immensely. When satisfactorily ascertained, the aggregate value will be awarded to the grantees, in Government lands elsewhere located. The matter, however, is not finally settled, as their claim is to be brought before the United States Circuit Court at Detroit for a confirmation of the title deeds, and other necessary legal formula. Monsieur Favargey, of Gundaloupe, W. I., is one of the grantees, and Senator Benjamin, of Louisiana, is counsel in the case.

MATRIMONIAL AND FINANCIAL.—A southern planter named P. once lived on the eastern shore of Maryland. One of the strongest and most marked traits of his character was an inordinate love of money. In the course of time P. was of age, and thought it about time to get married. He went to a neighboring village, and in the course of time was introduced to the daughter of Judge B.

"Dang fine gal!" said the embryo speculator to his friends, who were gaining him an entrance among the elite.

"Very!"

"How much might Judge B. be worth?"

"Why, about ten thousand dollars!" was the reply.

"And how many children has Judge B?" continued the inquirer.

"Only three."

"Three in ten goes three times and a third over," mentally cyphered P.

Here was a chance—a glorious chance—and he improved it too. He made love to the beautiful and unsophisticated daughter of the judge, with all his possessions.—Strange to say—for he was as uncouth a looking cub as ever went unkicked—his suit prospered, and they were married. The honeymoon passed off as all other honeymoons do, and they were happy. The bride was lively and chatty, and often made allusion to her brothers and sisters. Startled at a number of names he thought should not be in the catalogue of relations, one evening, at tea, he said:

"My dear, I thought there were only three of you."

"So there are by my ma, but pa's first wife had eight more."

"Eleven into ten, no times and nary over," said the astonished P., who jumped up and kicked over the chair, and groaned in perfect agony: "I'm sold! I'm sold—and—and—and a sight cheaper than an old bell-wether sheep at that!"

THE WHITE WOMAN IN AFRICA.—A white woman, who accompanied her husband, a missionary, up the Cavalla river last May, excited the greatest curiosity and admiration among the sable dwellers of that benighted African region. All wanted to touch her, and great surprise was expressed upon feeling her hair. The King of Nyinemo tribe called her "very fine," and complimented her husband greatly for his taste in selecting her. And when she told him he might see other white women who would surpass her, he said that would either never be, or else a very long time.—Owing to her presence, the attendance on preaching was extraordinary large. During her visit at the mission station, hundreds went to see her, who said they could feel satisfied to die now that they had seen such a wonderful being as a white woman.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH FREEING A SLAVE.—At the close of the services at Plymouth church, Sunday evening, Mr. Beecher presented to the audience a mulatto girl, twenty-two years old, named Louisa, who had been purchased from her master in Maryland by Mr. Seibold, of Washington, for $1,200, in order to obtain her liberty. Mr. Beecher stated that $400 had been raised, leaving $800 more required for her freedom. The sum of $511 was collected, and Mr. W. H. Sage gave his name for the balance. In the collection was a gold ring, which Mr. Beecher placed on the finger of the girl, saying it was her freedom ring, and as he did so she fell prostrate on the platform before him. Mr. John B. Gough gave the girl fifty dollars to pay her expenses to Washington.—New York Post.

Let the farmer consider now the question: What shall we do these long winter evenings, to pass away the time that otherwise will hang heavily on our hands? The prudent farmer will answer this question by providing his family with suitable books and papers, that they may store their minds with knowledge, and learn more of human life in its progress.

There are now about 15,000 pigs of lead awaiting shipment in Galena, and an average of 1,200 were arriving daily.

The cradle in which Henry Clay was rocked, was recently exhibited at a fair in Virginia.

"Professor" Downing, the fellow who swindled one hundred New York girls out of $5 each under pretence of teaching them the art of photographic transferring, has been arrested.

WHAT THE SOUTH FEAR.—The Philadelphia Press very pertinently remarks that it is the fear that Lincoln will make a conservative President, rather than that he will not, that disturbs the fire-eaters of the south. Nothing would so effectually take away their occupation as the national and conservative tone of the administration, and knowing the man, they bolt in advance.

THE RETURN OF REASON.—We see it stated that the great Wigfall has reconsidered his determination to resign his seat in the United States senate. He will be at his place in Washington in December, ready to pocket his salary from the much abused general government.

When are soldiers good flannel? When they don't shrink.

Official Paper of the City.

Origin of the Kansas Troubles.

A letter published some days ago by the New York Tribune, dated Orange, Southern Kansas, Nov. 5th, furnishes a key to the late despatches from Kansas. We give the facts condensing them into as brief space as possible. Some two years ago, a survey of the Indian lands in the southeast corner of the territory of Kansas established the northern boundary of the Indian territory about twelve miles south of Fort Scott. The country immediately to the north of this boundary in Bourbon county, Kansas, belonged to the New York Indian Reserve. It was given out that the Indian incumbrance would speedily be removed and people were encouraged to settle on the tract which was not occupied by Indians. Claims were made, dwellings erected, and all went well until it was discovered that most of the settlers were anti-slavery.—Bourbon Co. gave a republican majority. Then it was determined to drive out the settlers. A new survey was had. The people were informed the old survey was wrong, and the boundary of the Indian territory was put eight miles north of the former line! The people of the eight-mile strip were summarily ordered to abandon their claims and leave the territory, while at the same time intelligence was forwarded from Washington that the Indian title to the N. Y. lands were removed and the entire tract opened to pre-emptors. The letter continues:

Thus matters stood until the 26th of August last, when president Buchanan's proclamation, offering the New York lands for sale on the 3d and 15th of December, struck terror to the hearts of the people. But the end was not yet. Very soon after the posting of this proclamation, the settlers upon the eight-mile strip (numbering 1,527, according to the late census) were again warned to leave. Many of them had erected expensive dwellings, and expended their all in fencing and improving their farms. To leave was ruin. They chose to linger, hoping that something would be done to save them from the impending catastrophe. They would not believe that orders would issue to drive them from their homes at this season, and leave them shelterless for the winter. But the free-state man who hopes for the least show of mercy from any of the Kansas appointees of Buchanan is doomed to disappointment.

A few days since the Indian agent, backed by fifty United States dragoons, lighted his torch and started for the free state settlement. Coming to the house of a free state settler, he drives the family from the premises; hurls their household goods after them, touches fire to the roof that has sheltered them, and then stands sentinel over the kindling fire until the entire building is wrapped in flames. And then the fifty-one brave agents of democracy start for the next home, and leave it only when the red flames that encircle it bid defiance to the little group that stand gazing upon the ruin of their once happy and peaceful home. Then another and another of the free state homes are devoted to quick destruction, and the unsheltered inmates left weeping by the dying embers. And thus has the infernal work progressed until 74 houses are reduced to ashes.

This is no mere flying report: I have been and conversed with many whose homes have been destroyed, and who are now wandering with their families in search of winter shelter. Three days ago the buildings burned numbered seventy-four. How many have since been destroyed we can only conjecture.

As for the settlers upon the New York lands, they have until the middle of December to prepare for a similar fate. And in the mean time bands of murderers are almost constantly invading their country, shooting and hanging their citizens, stealing their property, driving them from their claims, threatening them with death, and by a hundred other modes subjected them to annoyance and constant peril.

The same correspondent says that for the past year the free state settlers have been harrassed by border ruffian invaders from Missouri. Emboldened by the success of the pro-slavery mobs of Texas and Arkansas, these border ruffians are determined to clear western Missouri and northern Kansas of free state men. A number of free state men have been murdered. Among them was Hugh Carland, found dangling upon the limb of a tree, his face mutilated, his body and limbs bruised and lacerated. John Denton, a worthy and peaceable young man was shot down while standing in the door of a grocery near the state line, by a Missouri horseman, who, after seeing his victim fall, galloped away. A school teacher by the name of Ellis was fired at several times. Dr. C. R. Jennison, who was with Montgomery in '57 and '58, has been fired upon. A young man named Guthrie was hung at night by Missourians. Capt. Montgomery had been threatened with death, and the Missourians were planning an incursion for that purpose and to burn Mound city.

Banner District.

The second congressional district in this state is the banner district in the Union. This honor was claimed for the Chicago district in Illinois, Mr. Arnold receiving 14,099 majority. Mr. Hanchett's majority is 15,022. All hail to the noble second district of Wisconsin.

VOTE OF THE STATE.—The official returns have been received at the state department in Madison from all but eight counties in the state. By these returns Lincoln receives 80,287 votes, Douglas 60,121, Breckinridge 743, Bell 146. Lincoln's majority over Douglas 20,166. The eight counties not officially reported, are reported to give Lincoln majorities of 1,708 and Douglas 540. If these are correct, Lincoln's majority in the state over Douglas is 21,334.

An exchange says: "Coming home a few mornings since, we met a man attempting to walk on both sides of the street.—By a skillful manœuvre we passed between him.

Who was it that first introduced salt provisions into the navy? Noah; for he took Ham into the Ark.

Second District.

The following is the vote in the second congressional district as far as received at the office of secretary of state:

	Lincoln.	Douglas.	Hanchett.	Reymert.
Crawford	828	832	533	856
Green	2872	1321	2371	1336
Juneau	1038	787	1038	740
La Crosse	1477	766	1487	864
Monroe	1229	681	1218	642
Sauk	2309	985	2308	1026
Pierce	687	411	630	424
St. Croix	664	597	651	611
Dane	4708	4173	4797	4210
Grant	3579	1920	3573	1941
Rock	5198	1916	5185	1966
Wood	362	301	424	296
Iowa	1909	1161	2100	1630
Richland	1168	777	1164	815
Marathon	219	481	251	450
Jackson	654	267	611	247
Buffalo	459	189	397	247
Eau Claire	490	342	485	363
Portage	941	471	1010	454
Adams	844	296	340	534
Bad Ax	1145	485	1126	511
Trempoleau	490	134	478	145
Total,	32 805	19,532	32,980	18,074

On these returns, Lincoln's majority is 13,273; Hanchett's majority, 14,856.

The counties in the district yet to be received at the secretary of state's office is Chippewa, Douglas, Lafayette, La Pointe, Pepin and Ashland. These counties are reported as follows:

	Lincoln.	Douglas.
Chippewa	15	.....
Douglas	4	.....
Lafayette	.....	158
La Pointe	10	.....
Pepin	275	.....
Ashland	20	.....
	324	158
Deduct Lafayette,	158
Maj. for Lincoln,	166

Assuming Hanchett's vote will hold up in these counties to Lincoln's, the majority for Mr. Hanchett is 15,022. Reymert seems to have had beautiful success in detaching enough Norwegian votes from the repnqlican candidate to elect him! We are inclined to believe that that plan will not be tried again.

The Panic Ended.

The indications are everywhere apparent that the panic in the money market has "petered out," at least so far as the northern part of the country is concerned.—Stocks are rapidly rising and exchange is going down. We learn that the banks of Chicago had agreed on Saturday to receive all Illinois money on deposit, to-day, except that of the Bank of Aurora, which, on account of the death of the principal owner, will be wound up, possibly at a slight loss.

It is evident enough that this panic is the work of Wall street brokers, operating upon the fears of the people, in relation to the secession of the southern states. Doubtless the money dealers of other cities contributed somewhat to effect this object, but without the lead of Wall street. such a conspiracy can never amount to much. We find in an exchange, the following explanation of the mode of producing the panic:

There are in New York city certain bank officers who meddle in politics; who, because their principles were unsuccessful, found it an easy matter first to create a "flurry" in the market; and second, because of the disunion movement, they desired to weaken the prestige of the incoming administration. These reasons may not be the pretended ones, but they are nevertheless the real causes of their action. But, how could they create the general depression in business which has taken place? In the first place they ordered the payment of their "call loans," amounting to $15,000,000. To comply with this mandate, borrowers had to sacrifice their resources to meet it. Stocks were forced upon the market in large quantities, buyers were indifferent, and an immediate decline was the inevitable consequence. This was repeated day after day until the insatiable lenders were appeased. With the scarcity of money and confidence, breadstuffs could not keep up, and hence a considerable decline in that department of trade. None will deny but there would have been a falling off in grain prices without a panic, as is usual at the close of navigation, when sellers are pressing upon the market to realize. So much having been accomplished in two or three days, only one thing more was wanted. Contracting their discounts, the leading banks operated against the more timid and less stable institutions. A few trembling houses collapse, and then the triumph of moneyed power is complete.

These unscrupulous dealers in money and politics have had the influence of the democratic press of the country to aid them, who desired to throw the odium upon the republican party. No means have been spared to increase alarm and sow the seeds of distrust throughout the land, that ruin might be brought upon the money interests of the country. "Perish credit, perish commerce, perish everything," has been the motto, so that the blame could be thrown upon the republicans. "You see now what you have done by the election of Lincon," was their taunt. "If Breckinridge or Douglas had been elected this would not have happened," etc., etc. This means that the south and the democratic party must be permitted to rule the country, or they will ruin it. But they are not quite able, with all their clamor and with Wall street to back them, to effect their object. The money market is coming around right, thanks to the solid sense of the people, and just so will the political agitation die out before the fourth of March. It is an extensive undertaking to ruin this great country financially and politically, and the disappointed politicians and traitors will find this out before many moons have passed over their heads.

CHINCH BUG.—Eds. Prairie Farmer:—I noticed in one of the last numbers of the Prairie Farmer an acticle on the chinch bug, its habits and manner of feeding, which is correct in the main. I am induced to give the result of my own observations upon their modes of propagating.

The female bug is the only one that survives through the winter. They congregate in holes in the ground, or turfts of grass, where they are protected from the changes of the weather and frost, if possible. In the spring they appear and deposit their eggs. Their instinct teaches them where the most fitting place is—generally in some old stalks, turf, dry stubble. And more than one of these bugs occupy the place for depositing their eggs—hence the innumerable number we find in one place. I have seen bunches of from one pint to a quart on one or two stalks of corn where the eggs had been deposited—old stalks I mean.—The bugs in these cases are very small. As they grow in size they scatter, but do not fly much until they attain considerable size. In the month of September or October they may be seen in the warm afternoons in great numbers. They appear, not so much to seek food as to seek winter quarters. I have taken them from their winter quarters by the handful. S. K. A.

AN EXPULSION FROM GEORGIA.—The Boston Transcript contains this narrative:

Steamer Joseph Whitney, Captain Loveland, arrived at this port this morning, having on board a full freight of cotton, amounting to some 1,400 bales. Mr. Ribero and family also came in the steamer. The story of his expatriation from Georgia, where he had long resided, as told by himself, is one of extreme hardship.

It appears that Mr. Ribero, who is a carpenter by trade, was engaged in building a bridge across the Skiddaway river, about 10 miles from Savannah. On Thursday of last week he received his Savannah papers as usual. The negroes, of whom there were eight in his employ, collected about him to hear the news. He merely said the papers were full of politics. One of the negroes remarked, "Then Lincoln is elected, and we are to be freed;" to which Ribero responded that he "did not know about that." From this conversation the report spread around the neighborhood that the unfortunate man had said the negroes were to be emancipated by the election of Mr. Lincoln. Mr. Ribero did not know of the storm which was gathering to burst upon his head. On the first of last week the planters of the vicinity armed with revolvers and bowie-knives, met to try Mr. Ribero for his offence. They empanelled a jury of thirteen men for the purpose, although some were for shooting him and others for hanging him, without any preliminary ceremony whatever.—They did not design to inform the prisoner what he had done to merit so summary punishment, although he was asked what had become of the eight slaves he had to work for him. He said they were now employed, but that two had absented themselves but where they had gone he was not aware.

When thus interrogated, Mr. Ribero was engaged in his occupation. In a short time the verdict of the jury was communicated to him, the decision being that he should receive thirty-nine lashes, have one side of his hair and whiskers cut close, and be sent to Boston. Two negroes were employed to do the whipping. Mr. Ribero thinks they did not give the full number of lashes to which he was sentenced, as the whipping stopped when the blood began to gush from his back. His hair underwent the cutting that had been decreed.

The victim of this barbarous treatment was then placed in a carriage and carried to Savannah, and put immediately on board the steamer, without opportunity to communicate with any of his friends. This was on Tuesday. The next day permission came for him to go on shore, but he declined to do so, as his life would have been in danger. He, however, in the meanwhile, was enabled to join company with his wife and two children, and they accompanied him to this city.

Mr. Ribero could not obtain his tools, and his family were obliged to leave Savannah, with little preparation for abandoning their home. They are fit subjects of discriminating charity. Mr. Ribero had lived many years in Savannah, and it is probable that he would not have been so inhumanly used, but for the excited state of the public mind. The proceedings, throughout, were probably the work of a mob, too powerful for resistance by the officers of the law.

TAKING DOWN A LAWYER.—A story is told of a very eminent lawyer in New York receiving a severe reprimand from a witness on the stand whom he was trying to browbeat. It was an important issue, and in order to save his cause from defeat, it was necessary that Mr. A. should impeach the witness. He endeavored to do it on the ground of age. The following dialogue ensued:

Lawyer—How old are you?

Witness—Seventy-two years.

Lawyer—Your memory, of course, is not so brilliant and vivid as it was twenty years ago, is it?

Witness—I do not know but it is.

Lawyer—State some circumstances which occurred, say twelve years ago, and we shall be able to see how well you can remember.

Witness—I appeal to your honor if I am to be interrogated in this manner; it is insolent!

Judge—Yes, sir; state it!

Witness—Well, sir, if you compel me to do it, I will. About twelve years ago you studied in Judge B.'s office, did you not?

Lawyer—Yes.

Witness—Well, sir, I remember your father coming into my office and saying to me: "Mr. D., my son is to be examined to-morrow, and I wish you would lend me fifteen dollars to buy him a suit of clothes." I remember also, sir, that from that day to this he has never paid me that sum. That, sir, I remember as though it had been but yesterday.

Lawyer (considerably abashed)—That will do, sir.

Witness—I presume it will.—London Sun.

SUNLIGHT IN HOUSES.—The following fact has been established by careful observation: That where sunlight penetrates all the rooms of a dwelling, the inmates are less liable to sickness than in a house where the apartments lose its health-invigorating influences. Basement rooms are the nurseries of indisposition. It is a gross mistake to compel human beings to reside partially under ground. There is a defective condition of the air in such rooms, connected with dampness, besides the decomposing paint on the walls, and the escape of noxious gases from pipes and drains. All school rooms, especially, should be open to the sunlight, yet, as a general thing, they are darkened like a parlor.

THE APPLE TREE BORER.—The Dubuque Daily Herald publishes a communication from J. H. Floyd, in which he says his best success in the management of old trees, has been to scrape off the old scales in the spring with the back of a knife and wash with soap or lime, and manure. He says: "My fruit has improved in size since I began to manure, and the trees look more thrifty. My first beginning was with sixty trees, between good and bad, and there about forty standing that might be called 20 years old; they have been bearing about 12 years.

Soap will not prevent the borer from attacking the young trees. There is something else besides the borer that annoys the young tree. The body of some trees will be covered with dry scales, dead to the wood. When a tree, old or young, gets black streaks on it, soap is the best thing to clean it off. If not cleaned off the tree will become unhealthy."

PRUDENCE IN SECESSION.—There is one very gratifying circumstance in all the secession movements of the south. The authority of the federal government is nowhere resisted. The Charleston Mercury denies very indignantly the report that Fort Moultrie is to be seized. The Collector of Charleston denies that there has been any interruption of the ordinary process of collecting federal duties, and clearing vessels. The people of Charleston call upon the postmaster not to resign his place.—And in every particular special care is taken not to oppose or disregard any law of congress.

So long as this attitude is preserved, there can be no necessity for the interposition of the government at Washington. The duty of the President is simply to see that the laws are executed. So long as they are voluntarily obeyed, there is neither occasion nor excuse for interference.—N. Y. Times.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

FORT KEARNEY, Nov. 25.

The pony express from San Francisco, with advices to 3:40 p. m. of the 14th, passed here about 4 o'clock this p. m. Considering the snow in the mountains, this is making good time. By this arrival we have Pacific news as follows:

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.

Trade with the country is less active than during preceding week. Considerable rain has fallen, but not sufficient to interfere seriously with the transportation of goods throughout the interior; the country has been, however, supplied so liberally within 60 days as to diminish the present demand, and as soon as freights advance we may look for its entire cessation. This is the general expectation entertained by city dealers and hence the increased efforts to reduce stocks and avoid calling upon first hands for anything not immediately needed.

The presidential election returns still lack 5,000 to 6,000 votes of being complete.—The total vote returned is 111,818. Lincoln 36,588; Douglas 35,996; Breckinridge 31,216; Bell 8,263. Lincoln's majority over Douglas 596. This is the most favorable account for Douglas published. Other authorities placing him nearly 1,000 behind Lincoln. The balance of the returns will probably reduce Lincoln's majority, but the state is generally conceded to have gone republican, although the official count is required to settle all doubts.

A despatch from Yreka, near Oregon, on the 13th, says the latest advices from Oregon give 2500 majority for Lincoln over Breckinridge; Douglas was 600 behind Breckinridge, with three small counties to hear from, which cannot vary the result.—Returns from a few of the principal counties show donations on election day to the Washington monument fund to the amount of four hundred and twenty dollars.

ST. JOHNS, N. F. Nov. 26.

The steamship Arago with Havre dates of 13th and Cowes 11 P. M. on the 14th passed Cape Race 9 P. M. yesterday. She was intercepted by news Yacht of associated press. The Arago has 165 passengers and 30 tons of freight for New York. Reports having experienced westerly winds most of the passage. She will be due at New York on Monday night.

CHINA.—It is reported the settlement of negotiations had been delayed on a question of money and unity of understanding.—The allied army was marching on to Pekin. Sankaka, Zenus had a large force to defend. Lord Elgin was to follow the troops on Sept. 9th. The army reached Yanktin Yeh on the 10th. The coolies were deserting and carriage was difficult. Two thousand troops left at Linstin to protect them from rebels who were in active attention. Trade was obstructed by the rebels. It was rumored in London that the British government had received official despatches from China that peace had been concluded at Pekin by the English and French ambassadors, but it was generally believed that government would not withhold such intelligence.

ENGLAND.—The bank of England had raised its rate of discount in consequence of the withdrawal of £300,000 for the bank of France, which was to be followed by £300,000 more.

LIVERPOOL—Breadstuffs market had a downward tendency and all descriptions had slightly declined. Flour dull declined 6d. Wheat quiet and lower.

Garibaldi has issued a farewell proclamation to his late army concluding by telling his companions in arms that an army of a million men will be wanted to follow him again to a fresh contest which is likely to break out in Italy by March next. The seige works before Gaeta actively continued and if the garrison will not capitulate a general bombardment will commence.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

James Black was nearly murdered by a gang of rowdies in Bleecker st. on Friday. His skull was badly fractured.

A collision occurred on Friday night at Ford Ham, between two freight trains one of which had a passenger car attached. D. Dodge Kelly was severely injured internally and his recovery is doubtful, while two other passengers and a breakman were somewhat hurt.

Advices from Panama per the Ariel state that the cargo of the American brig, Winthrop, had been seized at Santa Marita by commissioners of general government and appropriated to the troops and public. W. C. Foster, an American citizen had been arrested for going from Carthagenia to Santa Marta without a passport though he had one from the American consel. Two boxes specie containing $5,000 belonging to American citizens was seized at Santa Marita and still in possession of general government. News from Peru is that Clay has received his passports and would leave on the 12th for Panama and New York. Diplomatic relations are suspended with Peru.

DIED.

November 6th, 1860, of Squatter Sovereignty, STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, aged —

Tune—Lilly Dale.

'Twas a calm clear day, and the sun's mild rays,
Shone bright through all the sky,
When men, young and old, came forth to behold
Our darling Douglas die.
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
Now Democracy weeps, o'er the grave where he sleeps,
Which was dug on election day.

He had served his land with a willing hand,
And obeyed the people's call;
And his mark though high, was not in the sky,
But it was in the white house hall:
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
The people said that he should be dead
E're he saw such happy day.

Like a kind son he, wished again to see
His mother e're he should die;
So he went forth, through the south and the north,
And sought her with many a sigh:
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
Found his mother's breast, just in time to rest
There his head, and pass away.

Then let us shed o'er the face of the dead
Our sympathizing tear;
In political stock, he dealt and he broke,
For he found that votes were dear.
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
Now the winds tell the tale, through every vale,
That his fame must fade away.

Now let us rear, to his memory here,
A fitting monument;
We will pile on his head, all the reproaches he has [said,
And they shall represent
Judge Douglas; poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
No political horn, shall usher the morn
Of his resurrection day.

In Lima, on the 17th inst., by Rev. Mr. Potter of Ohio, Mr. E. A. SPRAGUE and Miss J. E. SMITH, both of Edgerton.

DIED.

In Evansville, Nov. 10th, of consumption, BYRON SUTPHEN, after an illness of one year, aged 22 years, 6 months and 17 days.

Death's chilling frosts have nipped
Another of earth's full-blown flowers,
But faithful angel hands have kept
The plant in bloom in heavenly bowers;
Now other hearts with grief are wrung,
Ascend again the strains of sadness;
Another harp in heaven is strung,
To sing the songs of endless gladness.

You felt it hard to give him up,
While yet life's morning sun was shining,
But dimly, though deep, the bitter cup,
Yourselves unto God's will resigning;
Death's call, for him, had no alarms,
But joyously he smiled to hear it;
He felt that angels in their arms
Would bear away his willing spirit.

He needs no stone above his head,
Encarved with many flattering numbers,
To make more soft his lowly bed,
Or peaceful make his gentle slumbers;
His is a monument of love,
Won by a life of meek behavior,
It tells of purer joys above,
Upon the bosom of his Savior.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

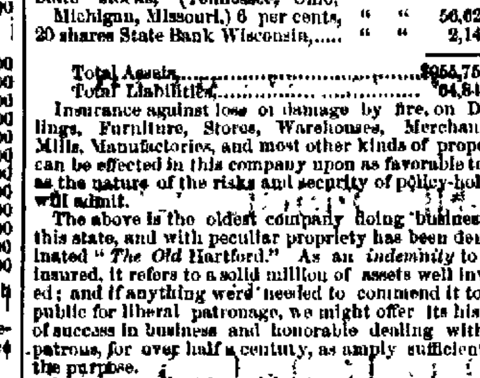

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and policies, business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and, liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farm risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,000,000

DAILY GAZETTE.

Important Land Suit in Michigan.

The Detroit Free Press says that Congress has provided for a commision to appraise the value of a tract of land sixteen miles square, lying on the Michigan side of the Saut Ste. Marie, and including the Saut canal, the village of Ste. Marie, the Saut Railroad, and various improvements in the way of farming, building, &c. This tract was granted by Louis XIV. to the Chevalier de Repentigny, whose heirs, after long continued efforts, have succeeded in inducing Congress to recognize their rights by a special act. The value of the tract is something fabulous, and the public works and private improvements have enhanced it immensely. When satisfactorily ascertained, the aggregate value will be awarded to the grantees, in Government lands elsewhere located. The matter, however, is not finally settled, as their claim is to be brought before the United States Circuit Court at Detroit for a confirmation of the title deeds, and other necessary legal formula. Monsieur Favargey, of Guadaloupe, W. I., is one of the grantees, and Senator Benjamin, of Louisiana, is counsel in the case.

MATRIMONIAL AND FINANCIAL.—A southern planter named P. once lived on the eastern shore of Maryland. One of the strongest and most marked traits of his character was an inordinate love of money. In the course of time P. was of age, and thought it about time to get married. He went to a neighboring village, and in the course of time was introduced to the daughter of Judge B.

"Dang fine gal!" said the embryo speculator to his friends, who were gaining him an entrance among the elite.

"Very!"

"How much might Judge B. be worth?"

"Why, about ten thousand dollars!" was the reply.

"And how many children has Judge B?" continued the inquirer.

"Only three."

"Three in ten goes three times and a third over," mentally cyphered P.

Here was a chance—a glorious chance—and he improved it too. He made love to the beautiful and unsophisticated daughter of the judge, with all his possessions.—Strange to say—for he was as uncouth a looking cub as ever went unkicked—his suit prospered, and they were married. The honeymoon passed off as all other honeymoons do, and they were happy. The bride was lively and chatty, and often made allusion to her brothers and sisters. Startled at a number of names he thought should not be in the catalogue of relations, one evening, at tea, he said:

"My dear, I thought there were only three of you."

"So there are by my ma, but pa's first wife had eight more."

"Eleven into ten, no times and nary over," said the astonished P., who jumped up and kicked over the chair, and groaned in perfest agony: "I'm sold! I'm sold—and—and—and a sight cheaper than an old bell-wether sheep at that!"

THE WHITE WOMAN IN AFRICA.—A white woman, who accompanied her husband, a missionary, up the Cavalla river last May, excited the greatest curiosity and admiration among the sable dwellers of that benighted African region. All wanted to touch her, and great surprise was expressed upon feeling her hair. The King of Nyinemo tribe called her "very fine," and complimented her husband greatly for his taste in selecting her. And when she told him he might see other white women who would surpass her, he said that would either never be, or else a very long time.—Owing to her presence, the attendance on preaching was extraordinary large. During her visit at the mission station, hundreds went to see her, who said they could feel satisfied to die now that they had seen such a wonderful being as a white woman.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH FREEING A SLAVE.—At the close of the services at Plymouth church, Sunday evening, Mr. Beecher presented to the audience a mulatto girl, twenty-two years old, named Louisa, who had been purchased from her master in Maryland by Mr. Seibold, of Washington, for $1,200, in order to obtain her liberty. Mr. Beecher stated that $400 had been raised, leaving $800 more required for her freedom. The sum of $511 was collected, and Mr. W. H. Sage gave his name for the balance. In the collection was a gold ring, which Mr. Beecher placed on the finger of the girl, saying it was her freedom ring, and as he did so she fell prostrate on the platform before him. Mr. John B. Gough gave the girl fifty dollars to pay her expenses to Washington.—New York Post.

Let the farmer consider now the question: What shall we do these long winter evenings, to pass away the time that otherwise will hang heavily on our hands? The prudent farmer will answer this question by providing his family with suitable books and papers, that they may store their minds with knowledge, and learn more of human life in its progress.

There are now about 15,000 pigs of lead awaiting shipment in Galena, and an average of 1,200 were arriving daily.

The cradle in which Henry Clay was rocked, was recently exhibited at a fair in Virginia.

"Professor" Downing, the fellow who swindled one hundred New York girls out of $5 each under pretence of teaching them the art of photographic transferring, has been arrested.

WHAT THE SOUTH FEAR.—The Philadelphia Press very pertinently remarks that it is the fear that Lincoln will make a conservative President, rather than that he will not, that disturbs the fire eaters of the south. Nothing would so effectually take away their occupation as the national and conservative tone of the administration, and knowing the man, they bolt in advance.

THE RETURN OF REASON.—We see it stated that the great Wigfall has reconsidered his determination to resign his seat in the United States senate. He will be at his place in Washington in December, ready to pocket his salary from the much abused general government.

When are soldiers good flannel? When they don't shrink.

MR. L. MOSES—Dear Sir,—Having had in constant use for nearly a year, a set of Lent's Patent Bed Springs purchased of you, I am prepared to recommend the same as the best article of the kind which has ever come under my notice. In fact it is the first and only bed spring I have been willing to use. Besides being exceedingly comfortable, it is at once simple, cleanly and durable. Its use, moreover, is conducive to health, as it sustains the mattrass in such a way as to expose its under surface at all times to a free circulation of air.

The Musical Convention.

Let it not be forgotten by our citizens, and particularly by all those who desire to see a correct and refined taste for vocal music established among the singers of our city, that PROF. GEORGE F. ROOT, of New York city, commences holding a musical convention in this city this (Monday) evening, at Lappin's Hall.

Prof. Root, as a composer and teacher of vocal music, has no superior in the United States. He has devoted his life to the study of music; and both in this country and in Europe has perfected himself under the tuition of the most profound and accomplished masters of this science. He has been for many years one of the teachers in the Boston Academy of Music.

The privilege of attending a convention conducted by such a person, is one not frequently happening to our citizens; and it is hoped that no one who desires to improve his knowledge or correct his taste in the truly refining and elevating science of music, will fail in attending this convention.

It will be remembered that Prof. Root held a convention in this city last fall, and we believe that all those who had the good fortune to attend that convention united in bearing testimony to his superior qualifications as a musical conductor. And not only this, but they found him a genial and warm-hearted gentleman, and a perfect prince of a good fellow. And it was their unanimous desire, most cordially expressed, that he should hold another convention here this fall.

Once more we say to every singer in the city, don't fail to be on hand at 7 o'clock this evening.

☞ Moseley & Brother have a full supply of singing books for winter schools.—They have also received Cassell's Bible, parts 17 and 18.

CHANGE OF TIME.—Trains on the Chicago and Northwestern road leave here for Chicago, as follows: Accommodation train at 8:00 A. M., day express 12:45 P. M., night express 10:40 P. M., and arrive from Chicago—day express 4:45 P. M., night express 10:20 P. M. Express train for Oshkosh leaves here at 4:50 P. M.

APPLES.—Mr. J. H. Ogilvie has a good assortment of apples for sale, near Mitchell's store, opposite the Hyatt House.

BOXES FOR PAPERS.—Subscribers to the Gazette would do themselves a favor, as well as the carriers, if they would put up a box at their gates into which the paper could be dropped. If left at the door the wind is likely to blow the paper away to be covered with snow or spoiled by the rain. Those who heed this request will be entitled to the thanks of the carrier.

AN AFFECTING DEATH SCENE.—Yesterday morning a woman by the name of Taylor, was found dead in a shantie in the 4th ward. The authorities were immediately notified and the writer of this proceeded to the place at the request of a justice of the peace, to consider whether it was necessary to hold an inquest. It has been my fortune to look upon many scenes of death and poverty, but the sight that I beheld on this occasion was the most wretched of all.—The shanty was open so that the snow and frost found easy access. The floor was covered with old rags and filth and on a pallet of straw in one corner lay the corpse.—Around the stove, enveloped in rags, stood the three children, the oldest not over 12 years. From the little girl, about nine, I learned that her mother had been sick three or four days, and had not spoken since Friday evening, and that at 4 o'clock on Saturday she died. She sent her brother to notify the neighbors but none came, and they set up all night and watched with their deceased mother. They had no supper nor breakfast. The corpse was frozen stiff and lay as she had breathed her last. The probable cause of death was intemperance.—Mr. Williston made preparation for the burial, and kindly cared for the children.

It may be right for a christian community to send money abroad to educate the heathen, but I am of the opinion of the eccentric John Randolph, who, when asked by a lady to give for such a purpose, replied: "Madame, the heathen are at your own door." Verily is it not our duty to seek out these places of poverty, starvation and sorrow and kindly administer to their wants.

M——.

CIRCUIT COURT.—This court commenced its session to-day. There are 401 cases on the calendar, of which 18 are applications for divorce.

RIPON & WOLF RIVER R. R.—The track on this road is now laid to Waukau. The first shipment of one hundred barrels of flour was made on the 19th inst.

NOVEL EXCITEMENT.—There has been quite a novel excitement in Utica, New York. All the dry goods merchants in the city save John Mulholland, agreed to close their stores at 7½ o'clock. The sentiment created by Mulholland's refusal, was evinced by the congregation of crowds of dealers and clerks about his doors in the evening, to prevent the entrance of customers, and talk about him in no flattering terms. The papers were full of the matter, and Mulholland published a lengthy card defending himself.

Alone!

BY CORA MAY.

Alone! the old clock's measured tick
Is the only sound I hear;
And the death-like stillness is so profound
That I start and tremble with fear,
If only a mouse runs through the wall,
Or the wind moans through the silent hall,

Alone! the lamp burns low and dim,
And strange, dark shadows lay
In the farthest corners of the room,
And over the walls they play,
As my chair swings idly to and fro,
And I watch them as they come and go.

Alone! no, now I am not alone,
In the shadows I can trace
Many a half forgotten scene,
Many a cherished face,
Ah me! I thought they were all asleep,
For over their graves I often weep.

Alone! no, no, I am not alone,
For the cherished friends of yore
That have crossed the river dark and deep,
That have reached the shining shore,
Have come to me in their robes of white,
And my room is filled with the glory light.

Alone! ah no, I am not alone,
And I should not start with fear
If they brushed my cheek with their shining wings,
As they float around so near,
Or her golden head should come and rest
As it often has, on my loving breast.

Alone! no, no, for the cherished ones
Have come from the courts of light,
They bring the peace of heaven to me,
And fill my soul with delight;
And when the vision fades away,
I bow before my God and pray.

WAUGH'S MIRROR OF ITALY.—The beautiful panorama illustrating the theatre of the late European war, will be exhibited at Lappin's Hall on Friday evening. It is universally recommended as worthy of patronage.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. have made the following change of time. Taking effect Sunday, November 25th 1860.

Trains leave Janesville for Milwaukee, 6:50 A. M. and 1:10 P.M.; for Madison 4:15 P. M.; for Prairie du Chien, 7:30 P. M.; and for Monroe, 5:45 P. M.

Monday Evening, Nov'r 26, 1860.

Official Paper of the City.

Origin of the Kansas Troubles.

A letter published some days ago by the New York Tribune, dated Orange, Southern Kansas, Nov. 5th, furnishes a key to the late despatches from Kansas. We give the facts condensing them into as brief space as possible. Some two years ago, a survey of the Indian lands in the southeast corner of the territory of Kansas established the northern boundary of the Indian territory about twelve miles south of Fort Scott. The country immediately to the north of this boundary in Bourbon county, Kansas, belonged to the New York Indian Reserve. It was given out that the Indian incumbrance would speedily be removed and people were encouraged to settle on the tract which was not occupied by Indians. Claims were made, dwellings erected, and all went well until it was discovered that most of the settlers were anti-slavery.—Bourbon Co. gave a republican majority. Then it was determined to drive out the settlers. A new survey was had. The people were informed the old survey was wrong, and the boundary of the Indian territory was put eight miles north of the former line! The people of the eight-mile strip were summarily ordered to abandon their claims and leave the territory, while at the same time intelligence was forwarded from Washington that the Indian title to the N. Y. lands were removed and the entire tract opened to pre-emptors. The letter continues:

Thus matters stood until the 26th of August last, when president Buchanan's proclamation, offering the New York lands for sale on the 3d and 15th of December, struck terror to the hearts of the people. But the end was not yet. Very soon after the posting of this proclamation, the settlers upon the eight-mile strip (numbering 1,527, according to the late census) were again warned to leave. Many of them had erected expensive dwellings, and expended their all in fencing and improving their farms. To leave was ruin. They chose to linger, hoping that something would be done to save them from the impending catastrophe. They would not believe that orders would issue to drive them from their homes at this season, and leave them shelterless for the winter. But the free-state man who hopes for the least show of mercy from any of the Kansas appointees of Buchanan is doomed to disappointment.

A few days since the Indian agent, backed by fifty United States dragoons, lighted his torch and started for the free state settlement. Coming to the house of a free state settler, he drives the family from the premises; hurls their household goods after them, touches fire to the roof that has sheltered them, and then stands sentinel over the kindling fire until the entire building is wrapped in flames. And then the fifty-one brave agents of democracy start for the next home, and leave it only when the red flames that encircle it bid defiance to the little group that stand gazing upon the ruin of their once happy and peaceful home. Then another and another of the free state homes are devoted to quick destruction, and the unsheltered inmates left weeping by the dying embers. And thus has the infernal work progressed until 74 houses are reduced to ashes.

This is no mere flying report: I have seen and conversed with many whose homes have been destroyed, and who are now wandering with their families in search of winter shelter. Three days ago the buildings burned numbered seventy-four. How many have since been destroyed we can only conjecture.

As for the settlers upon the New York lands, they have until the middle of December to prepare for a similar fate. And in the mean time bands of murderers are almost constantly invading their country, shooting and hanging their citizens, stealing their property, driving them from their claims, threatening them with death, and by a hundred other modes subjected them to annoyance and constant peril.

The same correspondent says that for the past year the free state settlers have been harrassed by border ruffian invaders from Missouri. Emboldened by the success of the pro-slavery mobs of Texas and Arkansas, these border ruffians are determined to clear western Missouri and northern Kansas of free state men, A number of free state men have been murdered. Among them was Hugh Carland, found dangling upon the limb of a tree, his face mutilated, his body and limbs bruised and lacerated. John Denton, a worthy and peaceable young man was shot down while standing in the door of a grocery near the state line, by a Missouri horseman, who, after seeing his victim fall, galloped away. A school teacher by the name of Ellis was fired at several times. Dr. C. R. Jennison, who was with Montgomery in '57 and '58, has been fired upon. A young man named Guthrie was hung at night by Missourians. Capt. Montgomery had been threatened with death, and the Missourians were planning an incursion for that purpose and to burn Mound city.

Banner District.

The second congressional district in this state is the banner district in the Union. This honor was claimed for the Chicago district in Illinois, Mr. Arnold receiving 14,099 majority. Mr. Hanchett's majority is 15,022. All hail to the noble second district of Wisconsin.

VOTE OF THE STATE.—The official returns have been received at the state department in Madison from all but eight counties in the state. By these returns Lincoln receives 80,287 votes, Douglas 60,121, Breckinridge 743, Bell 146. Lincoln's majority over Douglas 20,166. The eight counties not officially reported, are reported to give Lincoln majorities of 1,708 and Douglas 640. If these are correct, Lincoln's majority in the state over Douglas is 21,334.

An exchange says: "Coming home a few mornings since, we met a man attempting to walk on both sides of the street.—By a skillful manœuvre we passed between him.

Who was it that first introduced salt provisions into the navy? Noah; for he took Ham into the Ark.

Second District.

The following is the vote in the second congressional district as far as received at the office of secretary of state:

	Lincoln.	Douglas.	Hanchett.	Reynert.
Crawford	828	832	881	886
Green	2379	1821	2271	1338
Juneau	1033	787	1039	749
La Crosse	1477	760	1407	884
Monroe	1220	634	1216	642
Sauk	2309	985	2308	1026
Pierce	687	411	690	424
St. Croix	964	597	951	611
Dane	4795	4173	4797	4210
Grant	3579	1920	3578	1941
Rock	6198	1910	6188	1966
Wood	892	301	424	296
Iowa	1909	1651	2100	1030
Richland	1168	777	1164	815
Marathon	240	481	251	459
Jackson	654	207	611	247
Buffalo	459	180	397	247
Eau Claire	490	342	435	363
Portage	941	471	1010	454
Adams	344	206	340	304
Bad Ax	1145	465	1129	513
Trempeleau	480	191	478	145
Total,	32 805	19,533	32,993	18,074

On these returns, Lincoln's majority is 13,273; Hanchett's majority, 14,856.

The counties in the district yet to be received at the secretary of state's office is Chippewa, Douglas, Lafayette, La Pointe, Pepin and Ashland. These counties are reported as follows:

	Lincoln.	Douglas.
Chippewa	15	.....
Douglas	4	.....
Lafayette	.....	163
La Pointe	10	.....
Pepin	275	.....
Ashland	20	.....
	324	163
Deduct Lafayette,	168
Maj. for Lincoln,	156

Assuming Hanchett's vote will hold up in these counties to Lincoln's, the majority for Mr. Hanchett is 15,022. Reynert seems to have had beautiful success in detaching enough Norwegian votes from the repuqlican candidate to elect him! We are inclined to believe that that plan will not be tried again.

The Panic Ended.

The indications are everywhere apparent that the panic in the money market has "petered out," at least so far as the northern part of the country is concerned.—Stocks are rapidly rising and exchange is going down. We learn that the banks of Chicago had agreed on Saturday to receive all Illinois money on deposit, to-day, except that of the Bank of Aurora, which, on account of the death of the principal owner, will be wound up, possibly at a slight loss.

It is evident enough that this panic is the work of Wall street brokers, operating upon the fears of the people, in relation to the secession of the southern states. Doubtless the money dealers of other cities contributed somewhat to effect this object, but without the lead of Wall street, such a conspiracy can never amount to much. We find in an exchange, the following explanation of the mode of producing the panic:

There are in New York city certain bank officers who meddle in politics; who, because their principles were unsuccessful, found it an easy matter first to create a "flurry" in the market; and second, because of the disunion movement, they desired to weaken the prestige of the incoming administration. These reasons may not be the pretended ones, but they are nevertheless the real causes of their action. But, how could they create the general depression in business which has taken place? In the first place they ordered the payment of their "call loans," amounting to $15,000,000. To comply with this mandate, borrowers had to sacrifice their resources to meet it. Stocks were forced upon the market in large quantities, buyers were indifferent, and an immediate decline was the inevitable consequence. This was repeated day after day until the insatiable lenders were appeased. With the scarcity of money and confidence, breadstuffs could not keep up, and hence a considerable decline in that department of trade. None will deny but there would have been a falling off in grain prices without a panic, as is usual at the close of navigation, when sellers are pressing upon the market to realize. So much having been accomplished in two or three days, ofily one thing more was wanted. Contracting their discounts, the leading banks operated against the more timid and less stable institutions. A few trembling houses collapse, and then the triumph of moneyed power is complete.

These unscrupulous dealers in money and politics have had the influence of the democratic press of the country to aid them, who desired to throw the odium upon the republican party. No means have been spared to increase alarm and sow the seeds of distrust throughout the land, that ruin might be brought upon the money interests of the country. "Perish credit, perish commerce, perish everything," has been the motto, so that the blame could be thrown upon the republicans. "You see now what you have done by the election of Lincoln," was their taunt. "If Breckinridge or Douglas had been elected this would not have happened," etc., etc. This means that the south and the democratic party must be permitted to rule the country, or they will ruin it. But they are not quite able, with all their clamor and with Wall street to back them, to effect their object. The money market is coming around right, thanks to the solid sense of the people, and just so will the political agitation die out before the fourth of March. It is an extensive undertaking to ruin this great country financially and politically, and the disappointed politicians and traitors will find this out before many moons have passed over their heads.

CHINCH BUG.—Eds. Prairie Farmer:—I noticed in one of the last numbers of the Prairie Farmer an article on the chinch bug, its habits and manner of feeding, which is correct in the main. I am induced to give the result of my own observations upon their modes of propagating.

The female bug is the only one that survives through the winter. They congregate in holes in the ground, or turfs of grass, where they are protected from the changes of the weather and frost, if possible. In the spring they appear and deposit their eggs. Their instinct teaches them where the most fitting place is—generally in some old stalks, turf, dry stubble. And more than one of these bugs occupy the place for depositing their eggs—hence the innumerable number we find in one place. I have seen bunches of from one pint to a quart on one or two stalks of corn where the eggs had been deposited—old stalks I mean.—The bugs in these cases are very small. As they grow in size they scatter, but do not fly much until they attain considerable size. In the month of September or October they may be seen in the warm afternoons in great numbers. They appear, not so much to seek food as to seek winter quarters. I have taken them from their winter quarters by the handful. S. K. A.

AN EXPULSION FROM GEORGIA.—The Boston Transcript contains this narrative:

Steamer Joseph Whitney, Captain Loveland, arrived at this port this morning, having on board a full freight of cotton, amounting to some 1,400 bales. Mr. Ribero and family also came in the steamer. The story of his expatriation from Georgia, where he had long resided, as told by himself, is one of extreme hardship.

It appears that Mr. Ribero, who is a carpenter by trade, was engaged in building a bridge across the Skiddawny river, about 10 miles from Savannah. On Thursday of last week he received his Savannah papers as usual. The negroes, of whom there were eight in his employ, collected about him to hear the news. He merely said the papers were full of politics. One of the negroes remarked, "Then Lincoln is elected, and we are to be freed;" to which Ribero responded that he "did not know about that." From this conversation the report spread around the neighborhood that the unfortunate man had said the negroes were to be emancipated by the election of Mr. Lincoln. Mr. Ribero did not know of the storm which was gathering to burst upon his head. On the first of last week the planters of the vicinity armed with revolvers and bowie-knives, met to try Mr. Ribero for his offence. They empanelled a jury of thirteen men for the purpose, although some were for shooting him and others for hanging him, without any preliminary ceremony whatever.—They did not design to inform the prisoner what he had done to merit so summary punishment, although he was asked what bad become of the eight slaves he had to work for him. He said they were now employed, but that two had absented themselves but where they had gone he was not aware.

When thus interrogated, Mr. Ribero was engaged in his occupation. In a short time the verdict of the jury was communicated to him, the decision being that he should receive thirty nine lashes, have one side of his hair and whiskers cut close, and be sent to Boston. Two negroes were employed to do the whipping. Mr. Ribero thinks they did not give the full number of lashes to which he was sentenced, as the whipping stopped when the blood began to gush from his back. His hair underwent the cutting that had been decreed.

The victim of this barbarous treatment was then placed in a carriage and carried to Savannah, and put immediately on board the steamer, without opportunity to communicate with any of his friends. This was on Tuesday. The next day permission came for him to go on shore, but he declined to do so, as his life would have been in danger. He, however, in the meanwhile, was enabled to join company with his wife and two children, and they accompanied him to this city.

Mr. Ribero could not obtain his tools, and his family were obliged to leave Savannah, with little preparation for abandoning their home. They are fit subjects of discriminating charity. Mr. Ribero had lived many years in Savannah, and it is probable that he would not have been so inhumanly used, but for the excited state of the public mind. The proceedings, throughout, were probably the work of a mob, too powerful for resistance by the officers of the law.

TAKING DOWN A LAWYER.—A story is told of a very eminent lawyer in New York receiving a severe reprimand from a witness on the stand whom he was trying to browbeat. It was an important issue, and in order to save his cause from defeat, it was necessary that Mr. A. should impeach the witness. He endeavored to do it on the ground of age. The following dialogue ensued:

Lawyer—How old are you?

Witness—Seventy-two 'ears.

Lawyer—Your memory, of course, is not so brilliant and vivid as it was twenty years ago, is it?

Witness—I do not know but it is.

Lawyer—State some circumstances which occurred, say twelve years ago, and we shall be able to see how well you can remember.

Witness—I appeal to your honor if I am to be interrogated in this manner; it is insolent!

Judge—Yes, sir; state it!

Witness—Well, sir, if you compel me to do it, I will. About twelve years ago you studied in Judge B.'s office, did you not?

Lawyer—Yes.

Witness—Well, sir, I remember your father coming into my office and saying to me: "Mr. D., my son is to be examined to-morrow, and I wish you would lend me fifteen dollars to buy him a suit of clothes." I remember also, sir, that from that day to this he has never paid me that sum. That, sir, I remember as though it had been but yesterday.

Lawyer (considerably abashed)—That will do, sir.

Witness—I presume it will.—London Sun.

SUNLIGHT IN HOUSES.—The following fact has been established by careful observation: That where sunlight penetrates all the rooms of a dwelling, the inmates are less liable to sickness than in a house where the apartments lose its health-invigorating influences. Basement rooms are the nurseries of indisposition. It is a gross mistake to compel human beings to reside partially under ground. There is a defective condition of the air in such rooms, connected with dampness, besides the decomposing paint on the walls, and the escape of noxious gases from pipes and drains. All school rooms, especially, should be open to the sunlight, yet, as a general thing, they are darkened like a parlor.

THE APPLE TREE BORER.—The Dubuque Daily Herald publishes a communication from J. H. Floyd, in which he says his best success in the management of old trees, has been to scrape off the old scales in the spring with the back of a knife and wash with soap or lime, and manure. He says: "My fruit has improved in size since I began to manure, and the trees look more thrifty. My first beginning was with sixty trees, between good and bad, and there about forty standing that might be called 20 years old; they have been bearing about 12 years.

Soap will not prevent the borer from attacking the young trees. There is something else besides the borer that annoys the young tree. The body of some trees will be covered with dry scales, dead to the wood. When a tree, old or young, gets black streaks on it, soap is the best thing to clean it off. If not cleaned off the tree will become unhealthy."

PRUDENCE IN SECESSION.—There is one very gratifying circumstance in all the secession movements of the south. The authority of the federal government is nowhere resisted. The Charleston Mercury denies very indignantly the report that Fort Moultrie is to be seized. The Collector of Charleston denies that there has been any interruption of the ordinary process of collecting federal duties, and clearing vessels. The people of Charleston call upon the postmaster not to resign his place.—And in every particular special care is taken not to oppose or disregard any law of congress.

So long as this attitude is preserved, there can be no necessity for the interposition of the government at Washington. The duty of the President is simply to see that the laws are executed. So long as they are voluntarily obeyed, there is neither occasion nor excuse for interference.—N. Y. Times.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

FORT KEARNEY, Nov. 25.

The pony express from San Francisco, with advices to 3:40 p. m. of the 14th, passed here about 4 o'clock this p. m. Considering the snow in the mountains, this is making good time. By this arrival we have Pacific news as follows:

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.

Trade with the country is less active than during preceding week. Considerable rain has fallen, but not sufficient to interfere seriously with the transportation of goods throughout the interior; the country has been, however, supplied so liberally within 60 days as to diminish the present demand, and as soon as freights advance we may look for its entire cessation. This is the general expectation entertained by city dealers and hence the increased efforts to reduce stocks and avoid calling upon first hands for anything not immediately needed.

The presidential election returns still lack 5,000 to 6,000 votes of being complete.—The total vote returned is 111,818. Lincoln 36,588; Douglas 35,996; Breckinridge 31,216; Bell 8,263. Lincoln's majority over Douglas 596. This is the most favorable account for Douglas published. Other authorities placing him nearly 1,000 behind Lincoln. The balance of the returns will probably reduce Lincoln's majority, but the state is generally conceded to have gone republican, although the official count is required to settle all doubts.

A despatch from Yreka, near Oregon, on the 13th, says the latest advices from Oregon give 2500 majority for Lincoln over Breckinridge; Douglas was 600 behind Breckinridge, with three small counties to hear from, which cannot vary the result.—Returns from a few of the principal counties show donations on election day to the Washington monument fund to the amount of four hundred and twenty dollars.

ST. JOHNS, N. F. Nov. 26.

The steamship Arago with Havre dates of 13th and Cowes 11 P. M. on the 14th passed Cape Race 9 P. M. yesterday. She was intercepted by news Yacht of associated press. The Arago has 165 passengers and 30 tons of freight for New York. Reports having experienced westerly winds most of the passage. She will be due at New York on Monday night.

CHINA.—It is reported the settlement of negotiations had been delayed on a question of money and unity of understanding.—The allied army was marching on to Pekin. Sankaka, Zenus had a large force to defend. Lord Elgin was to follow the troops on Sept. 9th. The army reached Yanktin Yeh on the 10th. The coolies were deserting and carriage was difficult. Two thousand troops left at Linstin to protect them from rebels who were in active attention. Trade was obstructed by the rebels. It was rumored in London that the British government had received official despatches from China that peace had been concluded at Pekin by the English and French ambassadors, but it was generally believed that government would not withhold such intelligence.

ENGLAND.—The bank of England had raised its rate of discount in consequence of the withdrawal of £300,000 for the bank of France, which was to be followed by £300,000 more.

LIVERPOOL.—Breadstuffs market had a downward tendency and all descriptions had slightly declined. Flour dull declined 6d. Wheat quiet and lower.

Garibaldi has issued a farewell proclamation to his late army concluding by telling his companions in arms that an army of a million men will be wanted to follow him again to a fresh contest which is likely to break out in Italy by March next. The seige works before Gaeta actively continued and if the garrison will not capitulate a general bombardment will commence.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

James Black was nearly murdered by a gang of rowdies in Bleecker st. on Friday. His skull was badly fractured.

A collision occurred on Friday night at Forit Ham, between two freight trains one of which had a passenger car attached. D. Dodge Kelly was severely injured internally and his recovery is doubtful, while two other passengers and a breakman were somewhat hurt.

Advices from Panama per the Ariel state that the cargo of the American brig, Winthrop, had been seized at Santa Marita by commissioners of general government and appropriated to the troops and public. W. C. Foster, an American citizen had been arrested for going from Carthagenia to Santa Marta without a passport though he had one from the American consel. Two boxes specie containing $5,000 belonging to American citizens was seized at Santa Marita and still in possession of general government. News from Peru is that Clay has received his passports and would leave on the 12th for Panama and New York. Diplomatic relations are suspended with Peru.

DIED.

November 6th, 1860, of Squatter Sovereignty, STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, aged —

Tune—Lilly Dale.

'Twas a calm clear day, and the sun's mild rays,
Shone bright through all the sky,
When men, young and old, came forth to behold
Our darling Douglas die.
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
Now Democracy weeps, o'er the grave where he sleeps,
Which was dug on election day.

He had served his land with a willing hand,
And obeyed the people's call;
And his mark though high, was not in the sky,
But it was in the White house hall:
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
The people said that he should be dead
E're he saw such happy day.

Like a kind son he, wished again to see
His 'ma' o're he should die;
So he went forth, through the south and the north,
And sought her with many a sigh:
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
Found his mother's breast, just in time to rest
There his head, and pass away.

Then let us shed o'er the face of the dead
Our sympathizing tear;
In political stock, he dealt and he broke,
For he found that votes were dear.
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
Now the winds tell the tale, through every vale,
That his fame must fade away.

Now let us roar, to his memory here,
A fitting monument;
We will pile on his head, all the reproaches he has
And they shall represent [said,
Judge Douglas: poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
No political horn, shall usher the morn
Of his resurrection day.

Union, Nov. 19th. A. A. HOSKINS.

MARRIED.

In Lima, on the 17th inst., by Rev. Mr. Potter of Ohio, Mr. E. A. SPRAGUE and Miss J. E. SMITH, both of Edgerton.

DIED.

In Evansville, Nov. 10th, of consumption, BYRON SUTPHEN, after an illness of one year, aged 22 years, 5 months and 17 days.

Death's chilling frosts have nipped
Another of earth's full-blown flowers,
But faithful angel hands have kept
The plant in bloom in heavenly bowers;
Now other hearts with grief are wrung,
Ascend again the strains of sadness;
Another harp in heaven is strung,
To sing the songs of endless gladness.

You felt it hard to give him up,
While yet life's morning sun was shining,
But drain, though deep, the bitter cup,
Yourselves unto God's will resigning:
Death's call, for him, had no alarms,
But joyously he smiled to hear it;
He felt that angels in their arms
Would bear away his willing spirit.

He needs no stone above his head,
Encarved with many flattering numbers,
To make more soft his lowly bed,
Or peaceful make his gentle slumbers;
His is a monument of love,
Won by a life of meek behavior,
It tells of purer joys above,
Upon the bosom of his Savior.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeab'e STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS AND FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

Official Paper of the City.

Origin of the Kansas Troubles.

A letter published some days ago by the New York Tribune, dated Orange, Southern Kansas, Nov. 5th, furnishes a key to the late despatches from Kansas. We give the facts condensing them into as brief space as possible. Some two years ago, a survey of the Indian lands in the southeast corner of the territory of Kansas established the northern boundary of the Indian territory about twelve miles south of Fort Scott. The country immediately to the north of this boundary in Bourbon county, Kansas, belonged to the New York Indian Reserve. It was given out that the Indian incumbrance would speedily be removed and people were encouraged to settle on the tract which was not occupied by Indians. Claims were made, dwellings erected, and all went well until it was discovered that most of the settlers were anti-slavery.—Bourbon Co. gave a republican majority. Then it was determined to drive out the settlers. A new survey was had. The people were informed the old survey was wrong, and the boundary of the Indian territory was put eight miles north of the former line! The people of the eight-mile strip were summarily ordered to abandon their claims and leave the territory, while at the same time intelligence was forwarded from Washington that the Indian title to the N. Y. lands were removed and the entire tract opened to pre-emptors. The letter continues:

Thus matters stood until the 26th of August last, when president Buchanan's proclamation, offering the New York lands for sale on the 3d and 15th of December, struck terror to the hearts of the people. But the end was not yet. Very soon after the posting of this proclamation, the settlers upon the eight-mile strip (numbering 1,527, according to the late census) were again warned to leave. Many of them had erected expensive dwellings, and expended their all in fencing and improving their farms. To leave was ruin. They chose to linger, hoping that something would be done to save them from the impending catastrophe. They would not believe that orders would issue to drive them from their homes at this season, and leave them shelterless for the winter. But the free-state man who hopes for the least show of mercy from any of the Kansas appointees of Buchanan is doomed to disappointment.

A few days since the Indian agent, backed by fifty United States dragoons, lighted his torch and started for the free state settlement. Coming to the house of a free state settler, he drives the family from the premises; hurls their household goods after them, touches fire to the roof that has sheltered them, and then stands sentinel over the kindling fire until the entire building is wrapped in flames. And then the fifty-one brave agents of democracy start for the next home, and leave it only when the red flames that encircle it bid defiance to the little group that stand gazing upon the ruin of their once happy and peaceful home. Then another and another of the free state homes are devoted to quick destruction, and the unsheltered inmates left weeping by the dying embers. And thus has the infernal work progressed until 74 houses are reduced to ashes.

This is no mere flying report: I have been and conversed with many whose homes have been destroyed, and who are now wandering with their families in search of winter shelter. Three days ago the buildings burned numbered seventy-four. How many have since been destroyed we can only conjecture.

As for the settlers upon the New York lands, they have until the middle of December to prepare for a similar fate. And in the mean time bands of murderers are almost constantly invading their country, shooting and hanging their citizens, stealing their property, driving them from their claims, threatening them with death, and by a hundred other modes subjected them to annoyance and constant peril.

The same correspondent says that for the past year the free state settlers have been harrassed by border ruffian invaders from Missouri. Emboldened by the success of the pro-slavery mobs of Texas and Arkansas, these border ruffians are determined to clear western Missouri and northern Kansas of free state men. A number of free state men have been murdered. Among them was Hugh Carland, found dangling upon the limb of a tree, his face mutilated, his body and limbs bruised and lacerated. John Denton, a worthy and peaceable young man was shot down while standing in the door of a grocery near the state line, by a Missouri horseman, who, after seeing his victim fall, galloped away. A school teacher by the name of Ellis was fired at several times. Dr. C. R. Jennison, who was with Montgomery in '57 and '58, has been fired upon. A young man named Guthrie was hung at night by Missourians. Capt. Montgomery had been threatened with death, and the Missourians were planning an incursion for that purpose and to burn Mound city.

Banner District.

The second congressional district in this state is the banner district in the Union. This honor was claimed for the Chicago district in Illinois, Mr. Arnold receiving 14,099 majority. Mr. Hanchett's majority is 15,022. All hail to the noble second district of Wisconsin.

VOTE OF THE STATE.—The official returns have been received at the state department in Madison from all but eight counties in the state. By these returns Lincoln receives 80,287 votes, Douglas 60,121, Breckinridge 743, Bell 146. Lincoln's majority over Douglas 20,166. The eight counties not officially reported, are reported to give Lincoln majorities of 1,708 and Douglas 540. If these are correct, Lincoln's majority in the state over Douglas is 21,334.

An exchange says: "Coming home a few mornings since, we met a man attempting to walk on both sides of the street.—By a skillful manœuvre we passed between him.

Who was it that first introduced salt provisions into the navy? Noah; for he took Ham into the Ark.

On these roturns, Lincoln's majority is 13,273; Hanchett's majority, 14,856.

The counties in the district yet to be received at the secretary of state's office is Chippewa, Douglas, Lafayette, La Pointe, Pepin and Ashland. These counties are reported as follows:

	Lincoln.	Douglas.
Chippewa	15	.....
Douglas	4	.....
Lafayette	.....	158
La Pointe	10	.....
Pepin	275	.....
Ashland	20	.....
	324	158
Deduct Lafayette,	158
Maj. for Lincoln,	166

Assuming Hanchett's vote will hold up in these counties to Lincoln's, the majority for Mr. Hanchett is 15,022. Reymert seems to have had beautiful success in detaching enough Norwegian votes from the repuglican candidate to elect him! We are inclined to believe that that plan will not be tried again.

The Panic Ended.

The indications are everywhere apparent that the panic in the money market has "petered out," at least so far as the northern part of the country is concerned.—Stocks are rapidly rising and exchange is going down. We learn that the banks of Chicago had agreed on Saturday to receive all Illinois money on deposit, to-day, except that of the Bank of Aurora, which, on account of the death of the principal owner, will be wound up, possibly at a slight loss.

It is evident enough that this panic is the work of Wall street brokers, operating upon the fears of the people, in relation to the secession of the southern states. Doubtless the money dealers of other cities contributed somewhat to effect this object, but without the lead of Wall street, such a conspiracy can never amount to much. We find in an exchange, the following explanation of the mode of producing the panic:

There are in New York city certain bank officers who meddle in politics; who, because their principles were unsuccessful, found it an easy matter first to create a "flurry" in the market; and second, because of the disunion movement, they desired to weaken the prestige of the incoming administration. These reasons may not be the pretended ones, but they are nevertheless the real causes of their action. But, how could they create the general depression in business which has taken place? In the first place they ordered the payment of their "call loans," amounting to $15,000,000. To comply with this mandate, borrowers had to sacrifice their resources to meet it. Stocks were forced upon the market in large quantities, buyers were indifferent, and an immediate decline was the inevitable consequence. This was repeated day after day until the insatiable lenders were appeased. With the scarcity of money and confidence, breadstuffs could not keep up, and hence a considerable decline in that department of trade. None will deny but there would have been a falling off in grain prices without a panic, as is usual at the close of navigation, when sellers are pressing upon the market to realize. So much having been accomplished in two or three days, only one thing more was wanted. Contracting their discounts, the leading banks operated against the more timid and less stable institutions. A few trembling houses collapse, and then the triumph of moneyed power is complete.

These unscrupulous dealers in money and politics have had the influence of the democratic press of the country to aid them, who desired to throw the odium upon the republican party. No means have been spared to increase alarm and sow the seeds of distrust throughout the land, that ruin might be brought upon the money interests of the country. "Perish credit, perish commerce, perish everything," has been the motto, so that the blame could be thrown upon the republicans. "You see now what you have done by the election of Lincon," was their taunt. "If Breckinridge or Douglas had been elected this would not have happened," etc., etc. This means that the south and the democratic party must be permitted to rule the country, or they will ruin it. But they are not quite able, with all their clamor and with Wall street to back them, to effect their object. The money market is coming around right, thanks to the solid sense of the people, and just so will the political agitation die out before the fourth of March. It is an extensive undertaking to ruin this great country financially and politically, and the disappointed politicians and traitors will find this out before many moons have passed over their heads.

CHINCH BUG.—Eds. Prairie Farmer:—I noticed in one of the last numbers of the Prairie Farmer an acticle on the chinch bug, its habits and manner of feeding, which is correct in the main. I am induced to give the result of my own observations upon their modes of propagating.

The female bug is the only one that survives through the winter. They congregate in holes in the ground, or turfs of grass, where they are protected from the changes of the weather and frost, if possible. In the spring they appear and deposit their eggs. Their instinct teaches them where the most fitting place is—generally in some old stalks, turf, dry stubble. And more than one of these bugs occupy the place for depositing their eggs—hence the innumerable number we find in one place. I have seen bunches of from one pint to a quart on one or two stalks of corn where the eggs had been deposited—old stalks I mean.—The bugs in these cases are very small. As they grow in size they scatter, but do not fly much until they attain considerable size. In the month of September or October they may be seen in the warm afternoons in great numbers. They appear, not so much to seek food as to seek winter quarters. I have taken them from their winter quarters by the handful. S. K. A.

AN EXPULSION FROM GEORGIA.—The Boston Transcript contains this narrative:

Steamer Joseph Whitney, Captain Loveland, arrived at this port this morning, having on board a full freight of cotton, amounting to some 1,400 bales. Mr. Ribero and family also came in the steamer. The story of his expatriation from Georgia, where he had long resided, as told by himself, is one of extreme hardship.

It appears that Mr. Ribero, who is a carpenter by trade, was engaged in building a bridge across the Skiddaway river, about 10 miles from Savannah. On Thursday of last week he received his Savannah papers as usual. The negroes, of whom there were eight in his employ, collected about him to hear the news. He merely said the papers were full of politics. One of the negroes remarked, "Then Lincoln is elected, and we are to be freed;" to which Ribero responded that he "did not know about that." From this conversation the report spread around the neighborhood that the unfortunate man had said the negroes were to be emancipated by the election of Mr. Lincoln. Mr. Ribero did not know of the storm which was gathering to burst upon his head. On the first of last week the planters of the vicinity armed with revolvers and bowie-knives, met to try Mr. Ribero for his offence. They empanelled a jury of thirteen men for the purpose, although some were for shooting him and others for hanging him, without any preliminary ceremony whatever.—They did not design to inform the prisoner what he had done to merit so summary punishment, although he was asked what had become of the eight slaves he had to work for him. He said they were now employed, but that two had absented themselves but where they had gone he was not aware.

When thus interrogated, Mr. Ribero was engaged in his occupation. In a short time the verdict of the jury was communicated to him, the decision being that he should receive thirty-nine lashes, have one side of his hair and whiskers cut close, and be sent to Boston. Two negroes were employed to do the whipping. Mr. Ribero thinks they did not give the full number of lashes to which he was sentenced, as the whipping stopped when the blood began to gush from his back. His hair underwent the cutting that had been decreed.

The victim of this barbarous treatment was then placed in a carriage and carried to Savannah, and put immediately on board the steamer, without opportunity to communicate with any of his friends. This was on Tuesday. The next day permission came for him to go on shore, but he declined to do so, as his life would have been in danger. He, however, in the meanwhile, was enabled to join company with his wife and two children, and they accompanied him to this city.

Mr. Ribero could not obtain his tools, and his family were obliged to leave Savannah, with little preparation for abandoning their home. They are fit subjects of discriminating charity. Mr. Ribero had lived many years in Savannah, and it is probable that he would not have been so inhumanly used, but for the excited state of the public mind. The proceedings, throughout, were probably the work of a mob, too powerful for resistance by the officers of the law.

TAKING DOWN A LAWYER.—A story is told of a very eminent lawyer in New York receiving a severe reprimand from a witness on the stand whom he was trying to browbeat. It was an important issue, and in order to save his cause from defeat, it was necessary that Mr. A. should impeach the witness. He endeavored to do it on the ground of age. The following dialogue ensued:

Lawyer—How old are you?

Witness—Seventy-two 'ears.

Lawyer—Your memory, of course, is not so brilliant and vivid as it was twenty years ago, is it?

Witness—I do not know but it is.

Lawyer—State some circumstances which occurred, say twelve years ago, and we shall be able to see how well you can remember.

Witness—I appeal to your honor if I am to be interrogated in this manner; it is insolent!

Judge—Yes, sir; state it!

Witness—Well, sir, if you compel me to do it, I will. About twelve years ago you studied in Judge B.'s office, did you not?

Lawyer—Yes.

Witness—Well, sir, I remember your father coming into my office and saying to me: "Mr. D., my son is to be examined to-morrow, and I wish you would lend me fifteen dollars to buy him a suit of clothes." I remember also, sir, that from that day to this he has never paid me that sum. That, sir, I remember as though it had been but yesterday.

Lawyer (considerably abashed)—That will do, sir.

Witness—I presume it will.—London Sun.

SUNLIGHT IN HOUSES.—The following fact has been established by careful observation: That where sunlight penetrates all the rooms of a dwelling, the inmates are less liable to sickness than in a house where the apartments lose its health-invigorating influences. Basement rooms are the nurseries of indisposition. It is a gross mistake to compel human beings to reside partially under ground. There is a defective condition of the air in such rooms, connected with dampness, besides the decomposing paint on the walls, and the escape of noxious gases from pipes and drains. All school rooms, especially, should be open to the sunlight, yet, as a general thing, they are darkened like a parlor.

THE APPLE TREE BORER.—The Dubuque Daily Herald publishes a communication from J. H. Floyd, in which he says his best success in the management of old trees, has been to scrape off the old scales in the spring with the back of a knife and wash with soap or lime, and manure. He says: "My fruit has improved in size since I began to manure, and the trees look more thrifty. My first beginning was with sixty trees, between good and bad, and there about forty standing that might be called 20 years old; they have been bearing about 12 years.

Soap will not prevent the borer from attacking the young trees. There is something else besides the borer that annoys the young tree. The body of some trees will be covered with dry scales, dead to the wood. When a tree, old or young, gets black streaks on it, soap is the best thing to clean it off. If not cleaned off the tree will become unhealthy."

PRUDENCE IN SECESSION.—There is one very gratifying circumstance in all the secession movements of the south. The authority of the federal government is nowhere resisted. The Charleston Mercury denies very indignantly the report that Fort Moultrie is to be seized. The Collector of Charleston denies that there has been any interruption of the ordinary process of collecting federal duties, and clearing vessels. The people of Charleston call upon the postmaster not to resign his place.—And in every particular special care is taken not to oppose or disregard any law of congress.

So long as this attitude is preserved, there can be no necessity for the interposition of the government at Washington. The duty of the President is simply to see that the laws are executed. So long as they are voluntarily obeyed, there is neither occasion nor excuse for interference.—N. Y. Times.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

FORT KEARNEY, Nov. 25.

The pony express from San Francisco, with advices to 3:40 p. m. of the 14th, passed here about 4 o'clock this p. m. Considering the snow in the mountains, this is making good time. By this arrival we have Pacific news as follows:

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.

Trade with the country is less active than during preceding week. Considerable rain has fallen, but not sufficient to interfere seriously with the transportation of goods throughout the interior; the country has been, however, supplied so liberally within 60 days as to diminish the present demand, and as soon as freights advance we may look for its entire cessation. This is the general expectation entertained by city dealers and hence the increased efforts to reduce stocks and avoid calling upon first hands for anything not immediately needed.

The presidential election returns still lack 5,000 to 6,000 votes of being complete.—The total vote returned is 111,818. Lincoln 36,588; Douglas 35,996; Breckinridge 31,216; Bell 8,263. Lincoln's majority over Douglas 596. This is the most favorable account for Douglas published. Other authorities placing him nearly 1,000 behind Lincoln. The balance of the returns will probably reduce Lincoln's majority, but the state is generally conceded to have gone republican, although the official count is required to settle all doubts.

A despatch from Yreka, near Oregon, on the 13th, says the latest advices from Oregon give 2500 majority for Lincoln over Breckinridge; Douglas was 600 behind Breckinridge, with three small counties to hear from, which cannot vary the result.—Returns from a few of the principal counties show donations on election day to the Washington monument fund to the amount of four hundred and twenty dollars.

ST. JOHNS, N. F. Nov. 26.

The steamship Arago with Havre dates of 13th and Cowes 11 P. M. on the 14th passed Cape Race 9 P. M. yesterday. She was intercepted by news Yacht of associated press. The Arago has 165 passengers and 30 tons of freight for New York. Reports having experienced westerly winds most of the passage. She will be due at New York on Monday night.

CHINA.—It is reported the settlement of negotiations had been delayed on a question of money and unity of understanding.—The allied army was marching on to Pekin. Sankaka, Zenus had a large force to defend. Lord Elgin was to follow the troops on Sept. 9th. The army reached Yanktin Yeh on the 10th. The coolies were deserting and carriage was difficult. Two thousand troops left at Linstin to protect them from rebels who were in active attention. Trade was obstructed by the rebels. It was rumored in London that the British government had received official despatches from China that peace had been concluded at Pekin by the English and French ambassadors, but it was generally believed that government would not withhold such intelligence.

ENGLAND.—The bank of England had raised its rate of discount in consequence of the withdrawal of £300,000 for the bank of France, which was to be followed by £300,000 more.

LIVERPOOL.—Breadstuffs market had a downward tendency and all descriptions had slightly declined. Flour dull declined 6d. Wheat quiet and lower.

Garibaldi has issued a farewell proclamation to his late army concluding by telling his companions in arms that an army of a million men will be wanted to follow him again to a fresh contest which is likely to break out in Italy by March next. The seige works before Gaeta actively continued and if the garrison will not capitulate a general bombardment will commence.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

James Black was nearly murdered by a gang of rowdies in Bleecker st. on Friday. His skull was badly fractured.

A collision occurred on Friday night at Ford Ham, between two freight trains one of which had a passenger car attached. D. Dodge Kelly was severely injured internally and his recovery is doubtful, while two other passengers and a breakman were somewhat hurt.

Advices from Panama per the Ariel state that the cargo of the American brig, Winthrop, had been seized at Santa Marita by commissioners of general government and appropriated to the troops and public. W. C. Foster, an American citizen had been arrested for going from Carthagenia to Santa Marta without a passport though he had one from the American consel. Two boxes specie containing $5,000 belonging to American citizens was seized at Santa Marita and still in possession of general government. News from Peru is that Clay has received his passports and would leave on the 12th for Panama and New York. Diplomatic relations are suspended with Peru.

DIED.

November 6th, 1860, of Squatter Sovereignty, STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, aged —

Tune—Lilly Dale.

'Twas a calm clear day, and the sun's mild rays,
Shone bright through all the sky,
When men, young and old, came forth to behold
Our darling Douglas die.
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
Now Democracy weeps, o'er the grave where he sleeps,
Which was dug on election day.

He had served his land with a willing hand,
And obeyed the people's call;
And his mark though high, was not in the sky,
But it was in the white house hall:
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
The people said that he should be dead
E're he saw such happy day.

Like a kind son he, wished again to see
His 'ma' e're he should die;
So he went forth, through the south and the north,
And sought her with many a sigh:
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
Found his mother's breast, just in time to rest
There his head, and pass away.

Then let us shed o'er the face of the dead
Our sympathizing tear;
In political stock, he dealt and he broke,
For he found that votes were dear.
O, Douglas! poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
Now the winds tell the tale, through every vale,
That his fame must fade away.

Now let us rear, to his memory here,
A fitting monument;
We will pile on his head, all the reproaches he has said,
And they shall represent
Judge Douglas; poor Douglas! lost Stephen A.!
No political horn, shall usher the morn
Of his resurrection day.

In Lima, on the 17th inst., by Rev. Mr. Potter of Ohio, Mr. E. A. SPRAGUE and Miss J. E. SMITH, both of Edgerton.

DIED.

In Evansville, Nov. 10th, of consumption, BYRON SUTPHEN, after an illness of one year, aged 22 years, 5 months and 17 days.

Death's chilling frosts have nipped
Another of earth's full-blown flowers,
But faithful angel hands have kept
The plant in bloom in heavenly bowers;
Now other hearts with grief are wrung,
Ascend again the strains of sadness;
Another harp in heaven is strung,
To sing the songs of endless gladness.

You felt it hard to give him up,
While yet life's morning sun was shining,
But drain, though deep, the bitter cup,
Yourselves unto God's will resigning;
Death's call, for him, had no alarms,
But joyously he smiled to hear it;
He felt that angels in their arms
Would bear away his willing spirit.

He needs no stone above his head,
Encarved with many flattering numbers,
To make more soft his lowly bed,
Or peaceful make his gentle slumbers;
His is a monument of love,
Won by a life of meek behavior,
It tells of purer joys above,
Upon the bosom of his Savior.

The Musical Convention.

Let it not be forgotten by our citizens, and particularly by all those who desire to see a correct and refined taste for vocal music established among the singers of our city, that PROF. GEORGE F. ROOT, of New York city, commences holding a musical convention in this city this (Monday) evening, at Lappin's Hall.

Prof. Root, as a composer and teacher of vocal music, has no superior in the United States. He has devoted his life to the study of music; and both in this country and in Europe has perfected himself under the tuition of the most profound and accomplished masters of this science. He has been for many years one of the teachers in the Boston Academy of Music.

The privilege of attending a convention conducted by such a person, is one not frequently happening to our citizens; and it is hoped that no one who desires to improve his knowledge or correct his taste in the truly refining and elevating science of music, will fail in attending this convention.

It will be remembered that Prof. Root held a convention in this city last fall, and we believe that all those who had the good fortune to attend that convention united in bearing testimony to his superior qualifications as a musical conductor. And not only this, but they found him a genial and warm-hearted gentleman, and a perfect prince of a good fellow. And it was their unanimous desire, most cordially expressed, that he should hold another convention here this fall.

Once more we say to every singer in the city, don't fail to be on hand at 7 o'clock this evening.

☞ Moseley & Brother have a full supply of singing books for winter schools.—They have also received Cassell's Bible, parts 17 and 18.

CHANGE OF TIME.—Trains on the Chicago and Northwestern road leave here for Chicago, as follows: Accommodation train at 8:00 A. M., day express 12:45 P. M., night express 10:40 P. M., and arrive from Chicago—day express 4:45 P. M., night express 10:20 P. M. Express train for Oshkosh leaves here at 4:50 P. M.

APPLES.—MR. J. H. Ogilvie has a good assortment of apples for sale, near Mitchell's store, opposite the Hyatt House.

BOXES FOR PAPERS.—Subscribers to the Gazette would do themselves a favor, as well as the carriers, if they would put up a box at their gates into which the paper could be dropped. If left at the door the wind is likely to blow the paper away to be covered with snow or spoiled by the rain. Those who heed this request will be entitled to the thanks of the carrier.

AN AFFECTING DEATH SCENE.—Yesterday morning a woman by the name of Taylor, was found dead in a shantie in the 4th ward. The authorities were immediately notified and the writer of this proceeded to the place at the request of a justice of the peace, to consider whether it was necessary to hold an inquest. It has been my fortune to look upon many scenes of death and poverty, but the sight that I beheld on this occasion was the most wretched of all.—The shanty was open so that the snow and frost found easy access. The floor was covered with old rags and filth and on a pallet of straw in one corner lay the corpse.—Around the stove, enveloped in rags, stood the three children, the oldest not over 12 years. From the little girl, about nine, I learned that her mother had been sick three or four days, and had not spoken since Friday evening, and that at 4 o'clock on Saturday she died. She sent her brother to notify the neighbors but none came, and they set up all night and watched with their deceased mother. They had no supper nor breakfast. The corpse was frozen stiff and lay as she had breathed her last. The probable cause of death was intemperance.—Mr. Williston made preparation for the burial, and kindly cared for the children.

It may be right for a christian community to send money abroad to educate the heathen, but I am of the opinion of the eccentric John Randolph, who, when asked by a lady to give for such a purpose, replied: "Madame, the heathen are at your own door." Verily is it not our duty to seek out these places of poverty, starvation and sorrow and kindly administer to their wants.

M——.

CIRCUIT COURT.—This court commenced its session to-day. There are 401 cases on the calendar, of which 18 are applications for divorce.

RIPON & WOLF RIVER R. R.—The track on this road is now laid to Waukau. The first shipment of one hundred barrels of flour was made on the 19th inst.

NOVEL EXCITEMENT.—There has been quite a novel excitement in Utica, New York. All the dry goods merchants in the city save John Mulholland, agreed to close their stores at 7½ o'clock. The sentiment created by Mulholland's refusal, was evinced by the congregation of crowds of dealers and clerks about his doors in the evening, to prevent the entrance of customers, and talk about him in no flattering terms. The papers were full of the matter, and Mulholland published a lengthy card defending himself.

Alone.

BY CORA MAY.

Alone! the old clock's measured tick
Is the only sound I hear;
And the death-like stillness is so profound
That I start and tremble with fear,
If only a mouse runs through the wall,
Or the wind moans through the silent hall.

Alone! the lamp burns low and dim,
And strange, dark shadows lay
In the farthest corners of the room,
And over the walls they play,
As my chair swings idly to and fro,
And I watch them as they come and go.

Alone! no, now I am not alone,
In the shadows I can trace
Many a half forgotten scene,
Many a cherished face,
Ah me! I thought they were all asleep,
For over their graves I often weep.

Alone! no, no, I am not alone,
For the cherished friends of yore
That have crossed the river dark and deep,
That have reached the shining shore,
Have come to me in their robes of white,
And my room is filled with the glory light.

Alone! ah no, I am not alone,
And I should not start with fear
If they brushed my cheek with their shining wings,
As they flust around so near,
Or her golden head should come and rest
As it often has, on my loving breast.

Alone! no, no, for the cherished ones
Have come from the courts of light,
They bring the peace of heaven to me,
And fill my soul with delight;
And when the vision fades away,
I bow before my God and pray.

WAUGH'S MIRROR OF ITALY.—The beautiful panorama illustrating the theatre of the late European war, will be exhibited at Lappin's Hall on Friday evening. It is universally recommended as worthy of patronage.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. have made the following change of time. Taking effect Sunday, November 25th 1860.

Trains leave Janesville for Milwaukee, 6:50 A. M. and 1:10 P.M.; for Madison 4:15 P. M.; for Prairie du Chien, 7:30 P. M.; and for Monroe, 5:45 P. M.

Arrive at Janesville from Madison and Prairie du Chien, 8:00 A. M.; from Madison only, 2:40 P. M.; from Milwaukee, 5:35 and 8:50 P. M.; from Monroe, 12:45 P. M.

The Musical Convention.

Let it not be forgotten by our citizens, and particularly by all those who desire to see a correct and refined taste for vocal music established among the singers of our city, that PROF. GEORGE F. ROOT, of New York city, commences holding a musical convention in this city this (Monday) evening, at Lappin's Hall.

Prof. Root, as a composer and teacher of vocal music, has no superior in the United States. He has devoted his life to the study of music, and both in this country and in Europe has perfected himself under the tuition of the most profound and accomplished masters of this science. He has been for many years one of the teachers in the Boston Academy of Music.

The privilege of attending a convention conducted by such a person, is one not frequently happening to our citizens; and it is hoped that no one who desires to improve his knowledge or correct his taste in the truly refining and elevating science of music, will fail in attending this convention.

It will be remembered that Prof. Root held a convention in this city last fall, and we believe that all those who had the good fortune to attend that convention united in bearing testimony to his superior qualifications as a musical conductor. And not only this, but they found him a genial and warm-hearted gentleman, and a perfect prince of a good fellow. And it was their unanimous desire, most cordially expressed, that he should hold another convention here this fall.

Once more we say to every singer in the city, don't fail to be on hand at 7 o'clock this evening.

☞ Moseley & Brother have a full supply of singing books for winter schools.—They have also received Cassell's Bible, parts 17 and 18.

CHANGE OF TIME.—Trains on the Chicago and Northwestern road leave here for Chicago, as follows: Accommodation train at 8:00 A. M., day express 12:45 P. M., night express 10:40 P. M., and arrive from Chicago—day express 4:15 P. M., night express 10:20 P. M. Express train for Oshkosh leaves here at 4:50 P. M.

APPLES.—Mr. J. H. Ogilvie has a good assortment of apples for sale, near Mitchell's store, opposite the Hyatt House.

BOXES FOR PAPERS.—Subscribers to the Gazette would do themselves a favor, as well as the carriers, if they would put up a box at their gates into which the paper could be dropped. If left at the door the wind is likely to blow the paper away to be covered with snow or spoiled by the rain. Those who heed this request will be entitled to the thanks of the carrier.

AN AFFECTING DEATH SCENE.—Yesterday morning a woman by the name of Taylor, was found dead in a shantie in the 4th ward. The authorities were immediately notified and the writer of this proceeded to the place at the request of a justice of the peace, to consider whether it was necessary to hold an inquest. It has been my fortune to look upon many scenes of death and poverty, but the sight that I beheld on this occasion was the most wretched of all.—The shanty was open so that the snow and frost found easy access. The floor was covered with old rags and filth and on a pallet of straw in one corner lay the corpse.—Around the stove, enveloped in rags, stood the three children, the oldest not over 12 years. From the little girl, about nine, I learned that her mother had been sick three or four days, and had not spoken since Friday evening, and that at 4 o'clock on Saturday she died. She sent her brother to notify the neighbors but none came, and they set up all night and watched with their deceased mother. They had no supper nor breakfast. The corpse was frozen stiff and lay as she had breathed her last. The probable cause of death was intemperance.—Mr. Williston made preparation for the burial, and kindly cared for the children.

It may be right for a christian community to send money abroad to educate the heathen, but I am of the opinion of the eccentric John Randolph, who, when asked by a lady to give for such a purpose, replied: "Madame, the heathen are at your own door." Verily is it not our duty to seek out these places of poverty, starvation and sorrow and kindly administer to their wants.

M——.

CIRCUIT COURT.—This court commenced its session to-day. There are 401 cases on the calendar, of which 18 are applications for divorce.

RIPON & WOLF RIVER R. R.—The track on this road is now laid to Waukau. The first shipment of one hundred barrels of flour was made on the 19th inst.

NOVEL EXCITEMENT.—There has been quite a novel excitement in Utica, New York. All the dry goods merchants in the city save John Mulholland, agreed to close their stores at 7½ o'clock. The sentiment created by Mulholland's refusal, was evinced by the congregation of crowds of dealers and clerks about his doors in the evening, to prevent the entrance of customers, and talk about him in no flattering terms. The papers were full of the matter, and Mulholland published a lengthy card defending himself.

Alone!

BY CORA MAY.

Alone! the old clock's measured tick
Is the only sound I hear;
And the death-like stillness is so profound
That I start and tremble with fear,
If only a mouse runs through the wall,
Or the wind moans through the silent hall,

Alone! the lamp burns low and dim,
And strange, dark shadows lay
In the farthest corners of the room,
And over the walls they play,
As my chair swings idly to and fro,
And I watch them as they come and go.

Alone! no, now I am not alone,
In the shadows I can trace
Many a half forgotten scene,
Many a cherished face,
Ah me! I thought they were all asleep,
For over their graves I often weep

Alone! no, no, I am not alone,
For the cherished friends of yore
That have crossed the river dark and deep,
That have reached the shining shore,
Have come to me in their robes of white,
And my room is filled with the glory light.

Alone! ah no, I am not alone,
And I should not start with fear
If they brushed my cheek with their shining wings,
As they float around so near,
Or her golden head should come and rest
As it often has, on my loving breast.

Alone! no, no, for the cherished ones
Have come from the courts of light,
They bring the peace of heaven to me,
And fill my soul with delight;
And when the vision fades away,
I bow before my God and pray.

WALCH'S MIRROR OF ITALY.—The beautiful panorama illustrating the theatre of the late European war, will be exhibited at Lappin's Hall on Friday evening. It is universally recommended as worthy of patronage.

VALENTINE FREIGHT EXPRESS COMPANY,

Via New and Erie R. R.

N. Y. Office, 193 Broadway.

SPECIAL FREIGHT NOTICE!

THIS company having lately made more full and perfect arrangements than heretofore had, beg to call attention to their facilities for the

RAPID TRANSPORTATION

of all classes of merchandise, between the eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and places west, north-west, and south-west. We offer the following advantages—From and after this date our fast Express Train will be run from Jersey City every day (Sundays excepted) direct for Dunkirk, making close connection with our trains on Lake Shore Railroad for all places westward. Full and complete arrangements have been perfected by which can be made than has heretofore been made or attempted by any freight line. Our business is under the control and management of experienced transportation men. We have capable and responsible agents at all principal points of transfer and delivery, and our freight is carried in cars under our own control—all of which ensure safety and despatch; added to which

Our Rates will at all Times be as Low as by the Regular Railroad Lines.

Great care will be taken to guard against over charges, losses or damages, but should any occur, claim therefor will be promptly examined into and adjusted. SHIPPING DIRECTIONS.—Mark packages "Valentine Express." Procure Bills of Lading on the day of Shipment. For rates of freight, contracts, bills of lading and directions, apply to IRA JUSTIN, Jr., Agent, First door east of Hyatt House.

Janesville, Nov. 30, 1859. nov30dtf

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.
